Vocabulary Exam: GRE 333 (Word 161- 333)

Total Marks: 35
Vocabulary: 15 marks
Writing: 10 +10 = 20 marks

Time: 40 Minutes
Vocabulary: 20 Minutes
Writing: 20 Minutes

Instruction: Choose the option that best completes the sentence or correctly uses the given word according to the context.

01. The company's old accounting system had become so deeply embedded in its operations that replacing it seemed almost impossible. Even after several attempts at modernization, many of its procedures remained _____, resistant to any meaningful change.

A. malleable
B. immutable
C. porous
D. transient
E. tractable

02. Which of the following sentences uses imperturbable CORRECTLY?

A. The imperturbable student changed her answer several times because she could not decide which option was correct.
B. Despite the sudden crisis and intense pressure, the surgeon remained imperturbable and continued working calmly.
C. The imperturbable fabric absorbed nearly all the water that fell on it.
D. The manager became imperturbable because the company's profits declined sharply.
E. The scientist described the chemical as imperturbable because it dissolved immediately in water.

03. The journalist did not accuse the minister directly of corruption. Instead, through carefully chosen remarks, she seemed to _____ that he had benefited personally from the government's decision.

A. laud
B. negate
C. insinuate
D. mitigate
E. stipulate

04. Which of the following sentences uses intractable INCORRECTLY?

A. The two sides faced an intractable dispute that had continued for decades.
B. The patient's intractable pain did not respond to conventional treatment.
C. The committee struggled to resolve the intractable problem despite several negotiations.
D. The intractable employee followed every instruction immediately and never questioned management.
E. The conflict became increasingly intractable as neither side was willing to compromise.

05. After spending several weeks traveling through remote regions without access to modern conveniences, the researchers developed an appreciation for the comforts they had previously considered _____.

A. luminous
B. mundane
C. ubiquitous
D. presumptuous
E. perennial

06. Which of the following sentences uses mendacious CORRECTLY?
A. The mendacious witness deliberately provided false information to the investigators.
B. The mendacious mountain was covered with snow throughout the winter.
C. The professor's mendacious lecture was exceptionally clear and informative.
D. The engineer designed a mendacious bridge that could withstand heavy traffic.
E. The child was described as mendacious because she preferred quiet surroundings.

07. The government's decision to remove the subsidy was highly controversial. Critics argued that the policy would place an _____ financial burden on small businesses that were already struggling to survive.
A. innocuous
B. onerous
C. lucid
D. quiescent
E. magnanimous

08. The new safety regulations were introduced to _____ the possibility of accidents rather than attempting to deal with their consequences after they occurred.
A. obviate
B. proliferate
C. satiate
D. oscillate
E. prevaricate

09. Which of the following sentences uses ostentatious INCORRECTLY?
A. The billionaire arrived at the ceremony in an ostentatious car covered with expensive decorations.
B. The restaurant's ostentatious interior was designed to impress wealthy customers.
C. She rejected the ostentatious display of wealth and preferred a simple lifestyle.
D. The researcher presented an ostentatious argument supported by carefully collected evidence and logical reasoning.
E. His ostentatious manner made it clear that he wanted everyone to notice his success.

10. The village suffered from a severe _____ of clean drinking water after the underground wells dried up during the prolonged drought.
A. plethora
B. paucity
C. propensity
D. piety
E. probity

11. Which of the following sentences uses perfunctory CORRECTLY?
A. The manager gave the proposal a perfunctory review, spending only a few minutes examining it before approving it.
B. The scientist conducted a perfunctory investigation that lasted three years and involved hundreds of experiments.
C. The perfunctory mountain was impossible to climb because of its steep slopes.
D. Her perfunctory personality made her extremely enthusiastic about every task she received.
E. The engineer used a perfunctory material because it could not absorb any liquid.

12. The company had enjoyed rapid growth for several years, but its expansion eventually began to _____ as demand weakened and competition intensified.

A. proliferate
B. plummet
C. satiate
D. secrete
E. venerate

13. The historian's claim initially appeared convincing, but further examination revealed that several of the sources she had cited were unreliable. The researchers therefore attempted to _____ her argument with evidence from more credible records.

A. refute
B. placate
C. relegate
D. recant
E. laud

14. Which of the following sentences uses recalcitrant CORRECTLY?

A. The recalcitrant employee repeatedly refused to follow the company's safety regulations despite several warnings.
B. The recalcitrant medicine immediately relieved the patient's headache.
C. The recalcitrant speech was short, clear, and easy to understand.
D. The recalcitrant fabric absorbed water very quickly.
E. The scientist described the recalcitrant experiment as successful and conclusive.

15. The investigation initially raised doubts about the company's decision to terminate the employee. However, after reviewing the employee's repeated violations of company policy and several documented warnings, the committee concluded that the decision had been fully _____.

A. whimsical
B. viscous
C. tacit
D. warranted
E. zealot

Writing Questions

01. A major organization is facing a severe crisis caused by financial difficulties, internal conflict, and declining public confidence. Imagine that you have recently been appointed as the leader of the organization. Write about how you would respond to the crisis. Give a title, and use all 10 of the following words appropriately. You may change the grammatical form of a word where necessary.
imperturbable -intransigence -mitigate -pragmatic -recalcitrant -placate -probity -precarious -resolve -viable

02. In recent years, artificial intelligence has become increasingly common in education. Some people believe that AI tools can significantly improve students' learning, while others argue that excessive dependence on AI may weaken critical thinking and creativity.
Do you think AI should play a larger role in education? Discuss your position with relevant arguments and examples.

--------- x --------